RelyOn Nutec expands into Guyana in partnership with Atlantic Marine

The RelyOn Nutec Group is pleased to announce that we are expanding our presence in the region to support the accelerating demand for safety and technical services. We have formed a strategic partnership with Guyanese-owned Atlantic Marine Supplies Inc. to deliver to this market.

The new site, located in Houston, Guyana, will be a state-of-the-art training facility equipped with our full suite of safety and technical training services and simulation technology.

Wendy Zilla – Managing Director of RelyOn Nutec Caribbean – It is an exciting time for this region with Guyana being a key element in our company’s strategy. Our global footprint now spans 22 countries with this investment. We are committed to supporting our clients across the oil and gas industry and want to ensure our services are available in country. Atlantic Marine Supplies Inc. has proven to be a suitable partner, sharing in our vision and we are confident in the continued success of this collaboration.

Vincent Thakur – Managing Director of Atlantic Marine – As a Guyanese entrepreneur, we have seen and benefited from the significant growth in the oil and gas sector. Atlantic Marine Supplies Inc. has been fortunate to support the industry through its core business and this partnership has allowed another opportunity to do so.

With this partnership, RelyOn Nutec exemplifies its commitment to Guyana and the people of Guyana. Operating this facility in this country will bring more opportunities for nationals and supporting businesses. RelyOn Nutec and Atlantic Marine Supplies Inc. have built years of relationships with the business sector in Guyana and together, we are better able to support all industries.
